Art Unit: 1651

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the election response filed October 28, 2002.

2. Claims 1-31 are pending in this application.

3. Claims 1-31 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims of U. S. Patent No. 6,274,177, since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter drawn to the pharmaceutical composition.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Kasuya et al; Tsumura & Co. JP02004711; Weidner DK 9700132 or Jean et al U.S. 4,264,928.

Each of the references teaches a pharmaceutical composition containing at least 6-gingerol which composition anticipates the claimed the active ingredient used as a pharmaceutical composition or obvious over the above references in view of each other which includes the compositions in the form of claim 26 in view of Jean et al. If there are any differences, these differences would have been prima facie obvious absent a showing of criticality for any claimed amounts or ranges or the form of the compositions. It is immaterial as to the use of the method for the preparation or the use of the pharmaceutical composition absent a showing that the references cannot be employed for the claimed use or there is a patentable difference between the products as claimed and the references.

5. No claim is allowed.
